

Generations Homework Club

Currently available to students in grades 4-7

The Generations Homework Club is a mentorship program that builds social skills, self-esteem and confidence through homework support and various activities and games. Students will get assistance one to one or in small groups to develop the skills they need to make school an enjoyable, positive place to be.

Richmond Public Library
Kid's Place Program Room
(7700 Minoru Gate)

Monday.....3:30PM - 5:00PM

Hugh Boyd Secondary
Room 213
(9200 No.1 Rd)

Tuesday.....3:30PM - 5:00PM

- Drop in spaces may be available at library locations but it is best to register to ensure participation
- To download registration forms please go to www.rysa.bc.ca
- You may drop off registration form at RYSA Offices (#100-7900 Alderbridge Way),
- FAX them to 604-271-7626 OR scan and email them back to daniel.suen@rysa.bc.ca

Generations Homework Club is made possible by:

